

SGT. BARKEY AND MISS VIOLA KENDALL WED.

Sgt. Jerry Barkey, whose home is at Wyandotte, Michigan but who has been stationed at the Perry Army Air Field since last June, and Miss Viola Kendall, of Howell, Michigan, were united in marriage Saturday evening March 25 at seven-thirty, the marriage being performed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Gulick, in Tallahassee.

Lovely roses were used in the living and dining rooms and sun parlor, which were opened en-suite for the ceremony and reception which followed. Before an improvised altar of greenery intertwined with red rosebuds and balanced on either side by tall, candelabra, the marriage vows were taken, the impressive double ring ceremony being performed by Rev. Jack Anderson, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church in Tallahassee.

Miss Sara Nell Whitfield, of Perry was the bride's only attendant. She wore a gown of light pink brocaded taffeta, made on similar lines as that of the bride's gown, and carried an old-fashion nosegay of pink carnations and rosebuds. The best man was Staff Sgt. Frank Garland of the Perry Air Field.

Mrs. Barkey, mother of the groom, wore a black triple-sheer gown and her flowers was a corsage of gardenias.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Mr. Gulick, wore a lovely wedding dress of [?] de soie, made with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, long fitted sleeves and a full skirt which ended in a train. Her finger tip veil was of sheerest bridal illusion, fastened to a halo trimmed with orange blossoms. Her flowers were white carnations and rosebuds.

Mrs. Barkey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Kendall of Howell, Michigan and she arrived here Wednesday of last week, accompanied by Mrs. Barkey, mother of Sgt. Barkey, for the wedding.

Sgt. Barkey was transferred to the Perry Air Field last June, and prior to that had been stationed in Tallahassee at Dale Mabry Field. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Barkey, of Wyandotte, Michigan. Since coming to Perry he has made many friends, being well known for his singing and has been assisting with the music at the different churches.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gulick during which the beautiful tiered wedding cake was cut and severed with iced punch.

Sgt. and Mrs. Barkey are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Bennett.

Going from Perry to attend the wedding were Misses Sara Nell and Mary Helen Whitfield, Staff Sgt. Bill Shea, Capt. Bernie Bass, Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Carl Gloege, Cpl. Ralph Westover, and Staff Sgt. Frank Garland.
